Brother Kelly: Acts 22 Paul's Defense before the People

In Paul's address from the steps of Antonio, he spoke to the people until they clamored for his death. Acts 22:1-3 The speech deals primarily with Paul's statement of his birth, background, education, and Acts 22:4-5 his zeal as a persecutor of Christ, dwelling especially on the record of his conversion Acts 22:6-21. For the first time, he revealed the fact that the Lord had warned him on his first trip to Jerusalem that the Jews there would "not receive of thee testimony concerning me" Acts 22:18 -19 is especially significant in that it shows Paul's unwillingness to receive Jesus' word as final; because he seemed to be very certain that his own background as one of the opposition The Jews, hear him until he says God had sent him to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles, Jews become outrageous, and clamor for his life, Acts 21:22-23. The chief captain orders him to be examined by scourging; but he, announces privilege as a Roman citizen, escapes the torture, Acts 21:24-29. The next day the chief captain brings Paul before the chief priests and their council, Acts 22:30.
